

School of Law and Government, Dublin City University

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

1. Introduction

Dublin City University is a young university in an old city with a young population.

According to the Shanghai Rankings we are in the in the top 150 in the world for the study of politics and are number one in Ireland.

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

The School of Law and Government includes undergraduates, postgraduates, PhD students, post-doctoral fellows, as well as professors.

We do research with real-world impact.

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

European Climate Leadership in Question

Policies toward China and India

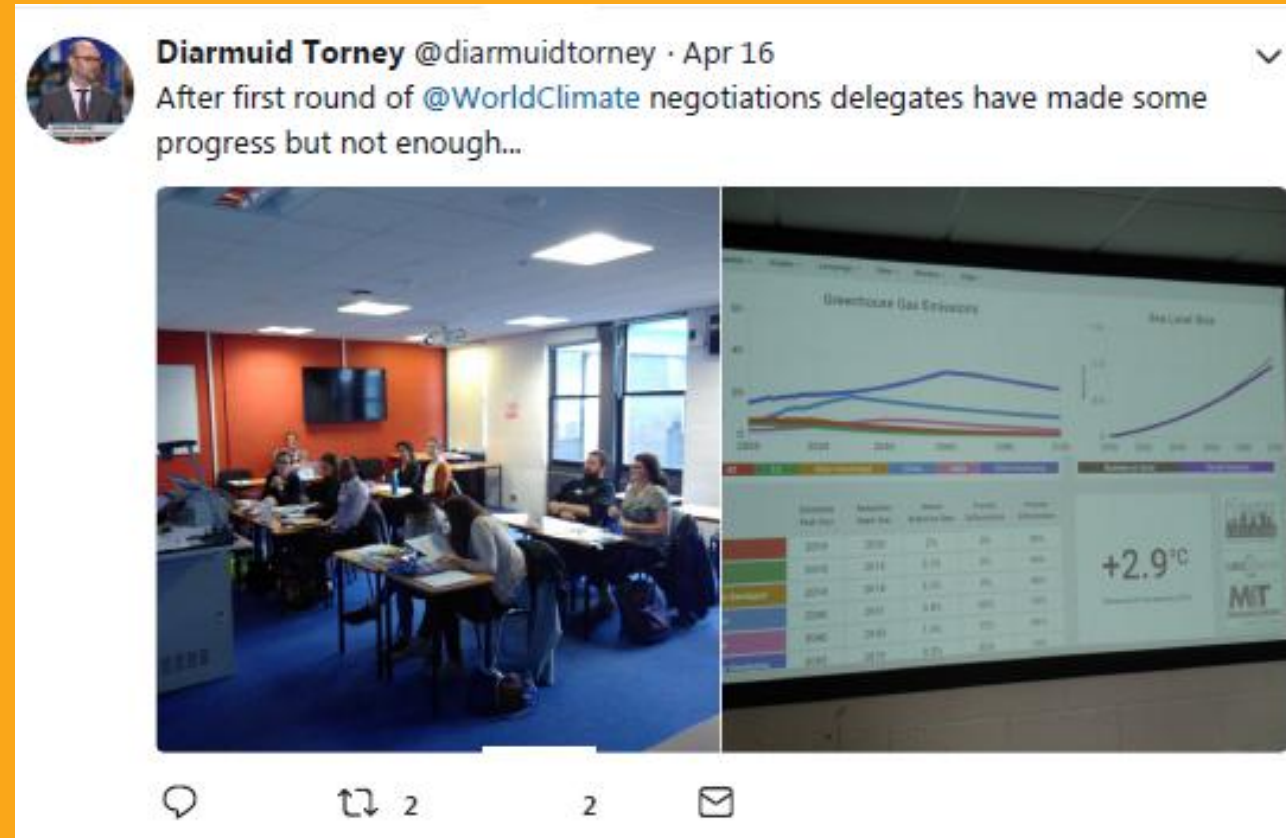

Diarmuid Torney

We value student diversity and class participation.

We use a variety of teaching and assessment methods, such as essays, reaction papers, and simulations.

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

Philosophy

- Speed of change in the world - predictions are very hard to make
- Interlinkages - all affected by climate, security, Ebola, etc
- Not just transfer of knowledge, but develop skills and tools for own analysis
- Practical as well as theoretical

Our students

- Mix of backgrounds in class – different countries, ages, professions, etc
- Includes military, diplomatic, activists, development workers, journalists, NGOs, government employees, teachers, etc
- They go on to work in a foreign ministry, government, development, UN agencies, security agencies, academia, and business

Support

- Thesis supervision by experts
- Excellent Library facilities
- Research institutes in the Faculty
 - Ireland India Institute
 - Institute for International Conflict Resolution and Reconstruction
 - Brexit Institute
 - Law Research Centre

Postgraduate taught programmes

- MA in International Relations
- MA in International Security and Conflict
- MSc in Public Policy
- LLM (Masters in Law)
- MSc in Climate Change
- MA in European Law and Policy
- MA Data Protection and Privacy Law
- International Master in Security, Intelligence & Strategic Studies

A flavour of subjects taught

- § Environmental Change and World Politics
- § Politics of the UN
- § European and International Human Rights Law
- § Conflict, Security and Peacebuilding
- § International Development Practice
- § Political Terrorism
- § Gender and Politics
- § International Security: Critical Approaches
- § EU Foreign and Security Policy
- § Policing and Society
- § Gender, Sexuality and Migration
- § Emerging Issues in Security

Structured PhD programme

- Large, diverse cohort of over 50 PhD students
- Dedicated supervision by expert, research-active members of staff
- Structured programme with extensive training in methods in year 1
- Limited number of fully-funded PhD scholarships available
- Application deadline in the spring

Further details available on our website

Postgraduate taught programmes:

https://www.dcu.ie/law_and_government/masters.shtml

PhD programme:

https://www.dcu.ie/law_and_government/research-future-students.shtml

Staff profiles:

https://www.dcu.ie/law_and_government/people/index.shtml

Ollscoil Chathair
Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

Thank you for your attention